Nearly 7,000 RAC Opinion members shared their views in January 2026

Household conversations

What are members talking about at home?

US politics

Many households have been discussing US foreign policy (e.g. Greenland, Venezuela) and Donald Trump.

“Planning travel, the political situation in the USA and comparing that to Australia.”

Terrorism

Closer to home, members also remain concerned about terrorism in the aftermath of the Bondi Beach shooting and the recent incident at Forrest Place in the Perth CBD.

“The tragedy of Bondi and how Australia no longer feels quite so safe.”

Topical issues

What do members think about these issues?

Member Benefits

1 in every 3 members said that they use an RAC member benefit at least once a month.

While most members expressed that the benefits and discounts available to them are valuable, some would like to:

- » Receive more reminders to use/access the benefits
- » See more benefits available in their local area
 - > We'll continue to work on this to add more value to your membership!

You can find out more about RAC member benefits at rac.com.au/memberbenefits

Travel

1 in every 2 members have booked holiday travel for this year.

Locally, the south-west remains the most popular destination.

In terms of overseas travel, Europe and Bali are the most popular. Visitation to Japan continues to increase, but fewer members are planning to travel to the USA.
