Household conversations

What are members talking about at home?

Australian Politics

There’s been increased discussion this month in member households about local politics, with the Federal Budget a key talking point.

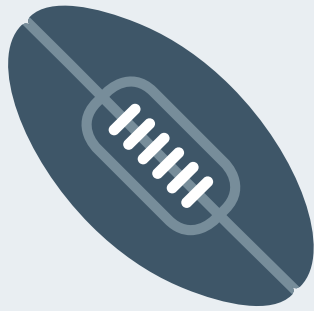

“The state and federal budget and the implications they will have on our family and our finances.”

Football

Debate about the Fremantle Dockers’ premiership chances has seen football jump into the top 10 most discussed topics this month.

“AFL conversations on how well the Dockers are doing.”

Topical issues

What do members think about these issues?

Moving Home

Nearly 1 in every 10 members have changed address in the past 12 months.

Updating address details with service providers (e.g. banks, insurance, utilities) is a common source of frustration for many members.

Of those members who have moved recently, 2 in every 5 are still in the process of updating their details.

RAC is currently considering ways to make this process easier for members.

Winter Road Trips

Members shared their favourite winter road trips in WA, with the most popular destinations being in northern location such as Kalbarri, Exmouth and Broome.

Nearly 1 in every 5 members own a caravan or camper trailer to help them travel to these iconic WA locations, with another 7% planning to buy a caravan in the next few years.
